

GIRL, 19, SHARING BODY WITH CHILD, 4, SAYS PSYCHOLOGIST

Columbus, O., Scientist Killing Latter With Hypnotism to Save Life of Former.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—Bernice Redick will soon regain sole possession of her own body, Dr. H. H. Goddard, psychologist, declared to-day, announcing existence of a strange case of dual personality. Bernice Redick, nineteen years old, and Polly Redick, four years old—total strangers until a few weeks ago—have been occupying the same human body, he said. But science slowly is killing Polly in an effort to save the life of Bernice. Hypnotism is working the cure.

The girl, formerly a high school pupil at Lisbon, O., was brought to the Juvenile Research Bureau here two months ago for treatment. "She was possessed of two distinct personalities," Dr. Goddard said. "In a single day she changed back and forth eleven times from a four-year-old girl to her normal herself, a nineteen-year-old girl."

"The four-year-old personality said its name was Polly. It was normal in every way for a four-year-old child. It could neither read nor write nor distinguish between colors. The child gibbered in "baby talk" and delighted in toys.

"When Bernice got the upper hand we would have a bright, alert, cultured young woman, who wrote beautiful letters, read good books and had ambitions to become a musician."

"There was not a single connecting link between Polly and Bernice. When the girl was Bernice she had no recollection or acquaintance with the Polly personality and Bernice was a stranger to Polly."

Dr. Goddard found that when under a hypnotic spell the real self possessed the girl's body. In this manner he first "introduced" the two personalities and upbraided the girl for her lapsing into infancy.

"After each hypnotic treatment we could see she was coming to have a better understanding of her other personality and with it a determination not to let the Polly personality possess her. Now we feel that Polly will soon be eradicated entirely."
